Providing Leadership Talent for the Non-Profit industry.

Sterling Search & Consulting, a leader in Talent Acquisition since 1999, is Northeast Florida's only full service retained executive search firm with a specialization in Non-Profit search.

As a Jacksonville-based firm, we know your brand, mission and market presence better than an out-of-market search firm because we've been an integral part of our business and philanthropic community for more than 15 years.

We provide search solutions tailored to the specific talent acquisition needs of your organization and ensure that in hiring the best candidate, you are also hiring the right candidate for your organization and culture. We are committed to your mission's success and your total satisfaction.
